

Grimm + Parker Surveys - Join the Conversation Urban Land Institute (ULI) Real Estate Trends Conference

April 2016

Which DC developments are people excited about?

As residents, designers, visitors, and developers it's exciting to see the changes unfolding across the District. We surveyed attendees at the recent ULI Trends conference to see what they're passionate about. From the granular changes across the city to the reinvention of entire neighborhoods this is what they shared with us.

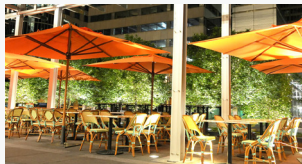

Amenities

Building

Neighborhood

“

Active Transit + Bike Share

Breweries + Distilleries

Community Pools, Gym, Party Room

Hair Salon + Dry Cleaners

Restaurants + Theater

Pedestrian Focus + Walkability

Compact Development

Restaurants with Decks + Patios

Housing Diversity

“

Roadside at JBG in Shaw

City Market at O

The Park at the Navy Yard specifically the lawn chairs

City Center
changing the downtown landscape

Georgetown Spray Fountain

“

Southwest Waterfront

Capitol Riverfront

Columbia Heights

What do you want to see next? Let us know... @GParchitects